People-watching becomes an art form in this posh section of the city. Soak up the sun and do a different kind of window shopping while you munch at Stephanie's on Newbury Street. The restaurant offers items such as shepherd's pie and a lobster quesadilla and calls its fare "sophisticated comfort food."

More outdoor dining in the area: Bar Lola (open as weather permits), Ciao Bella, Scoози, Tapeo (opens April 21), Croma (open as weather permits), Cafeteria Boston, Kashmir, and Joe's American Bar and Grill.
